“A LITTLE BIT OF LIGHT DISPELS A LOT OF DARKNESS”
—RABBI SCHNEUR ZALMAN
OUR MISSION IS TO STRENGTHEN FAMILIES AND INDIVIDUALS ACROSS GENERATIONS AND CULTURES TO ACHIEVE STABILITY, INDEPENDENCE, AND COMMUNITY.
THIS PAST YEAR
was a meaningful one for JFCS. All of the planning, hard work, and vision for The Barbara and Harvey Brodsky Enrichment Center of JFCS in Bala Cynwyd became a reality on April 2, 2017, when we officially opened our doors to the community. Then began the next chapter in the long-standing 162-year history of this organization. Our goal for The Brodsky Enrichment Center is to provide experiences for individuals and families who we serve across the life spectrum that help them with life skills, community connection, and a sense of purpose. Our organization is growing to meet the ever-changing needs of our community. We remain relevant, impactful, and financially strong, with creative leaders at all levels, and a committed and talented Board of Directors who believe in our mission and purpose. We look forward in the upcoming year to deepening our impact and remaining strong, relevant, and compassionate.

Paula Goldstein
President/CEO

I WAS FIRST INTRODUCED TO JEWISH FAMILY & CHILDREN’S SERVICE OF GREATER PHILADELPHIA (JFCS) IN 2000. Since that time, serving in various capacities, I have found the work of our agency to be incredibly compelling and critically important to the well-being of the clients who we serve. Our mission—to strengthen families and individuals across generations and cultures to achieve stability, independence, and community—remains timeless. Although our roots date back to 1855 and Rebecca Gratz, we continually strive to identify the needs of the present and to lead the way forward in the delivery of our services.

Over the course of the past year, it has been my honor to serve as Chairman of the Boards of Directors and Trustees of our agency. We are blessed at JFCS to have a dedicated team of professionals and committed lay leaders and volunteers to whom we are indebted. JFCS’ still new Barbara and Harvey Brodsky Enrichment Center is bustling with activity. If you have yet to visit us at this new location, please do so soon!

In the year ahead, the Boards of Directors and Trustees will continue to work, along with our professional leadership team, on expanding our reach through partnerships and synergistic collaborations with other communal organizations and entities. I welcome your feedback, thoughts, and constructive criticisms. Your input will make us stronger. Please feel free to reach out to me directly: ael15@columbia.edu or 215-569-5764.

With my thanks for your individual contributions to Jewish Family and Children’s Service of Greater Philadelphia,

Adam E. Laver
Chairman of the Board
Securing the Health and Safety of Families

OUR IMPACT

Our Impact

Holocaust Survivor Community

166

Holocaust Survivors came together for social activities including musical and film events, Jewish holiday celebrations, current event discussions, and enjoying meals with peers.

we hosted socialization events throughout the year for our Survivors such as Café Europa, special movie and discussion events, and our "Mavens' Klub," which provides a meal and engaging social activities each quarter.

participants attended 35 LGBTQ sensitivity trainings

LGBTQ Communities

Jewish institutions, including synagogues and Jewish day schools, were coached to help them to increase LGBTQ inclusion, ensuring inclusive programming, protocols, and policies for both internal and external communications and standards.

JFCS is bringing together people who are isolated and feel alone in their life’s circumstances with others who are feeling the same way and facing similar issues by helping them engage with their peers, family, friends, and community.

Creating Communities
Orthodox Jewish Community

- 18 Orthodox mental health professionals participated in bi-monthly meetings for coordination of services and peer support.
- 485 Orthodox women engaged in workshops and conferences to learn about mental health.
- 26 workshops on mental health issues were provided for Orthodox women.
- 115 families attended our picnics, celebrating their families formed by adoption.
- 35 Jewish area organizations were members of J.Proud, a JFCS consortium, created by JFCS to build community and advocate for LGBTQ communities.
- 875 Orthodox women participated locally and nationally in perinatal bereavement support conference calls.

Adoptive Family Communities

- 55 adoptive families and potential adoptive parents attended our informal supportive forums that address topics touching everyone in the adoption experience.
- 1,614 community members gave of their time to help JFCS’ vital mission.
- 184 adults living with disabilities, their families and friends, as well as community members celebrated inclusive holidays together in synagogues through our JFCS In-JOY program (Inclusive Jewish Occasions Year-Round).
- 56 socialization and educational trips/programs were hosted by JFCS for 52 adults living with disabilities through the Adult Network, 20 adolescents/young adults through the Teen Network, and 6 adults in the SPICE Program (Social, Peer, Interaction, Community, and Enrichment).
- 485 people attended 5 J.Proud events to encourage inclusivity, overcome isolation, and just have fun.

People Living with Disabilities Community

- 62 families attended workshops designed to provide education and to foster shared experiences among our Open Arms Adoption Network Community.
- 485 people attended 5 J.Proud events to encourage inclusivity, overcome isolation, and just have fun.

Volunteers
Community Engagement

Share A Ride

Share A Ride, a campaign fueled by the community, raised $114,574, including a generous grant from the Jewish Federation Real Estate Group, allowing JFCS to purchase a 17-person, wheelchair-accessible van for our most vulnerable clients, including older adults and individuals living with disabilities. Thanks to our generous donors, this van helps combat isolation for these populations by providing transportation for medical appointments, food shopping, socialization trips, and more. Thank you to all our donors who participated to help these clients live healthy and independent lives!

Fall4Fertility

Nearly 100 people came together for the second annual Fall4Fertility: An Evening Benefiting The Fertility Fund. Hosted at the home of Brittany and Alex Cook, the evening was a huge success, raising over $30,000 to help families afford the cost of in vitro fertilization.

Fashion For All

Our Closet – Powered by JFCS hosted Fashion For All at Neiman Marcus in the King of Prussia Mall. The event welcomed over 150 guests for a luncheon and fashion show hosted by Ana Maria Pimentel, Neiman Marcus’ Fashion Director for Women’s Accessories. The event was emceed by 6ABC news anchor Nydia Han. Fashion For All raised over $100,000 to help provide pop-up shops all over the Greater Philadelphia region to provide clothing assistance for those in need.

33rd Annual Benefit – The Open Tent

The JFCS family came together to honor Amy and Randy Stein and Isa and Mitchell Welsch, as well as Community Service Award winner Silver Lining Home Healthcare. The theme of the evening, The Open Tent, showed that as modeled by our ancestors, Abraham and Sarah, JFCS’ tent is open and welcoming to all in our community, providing support, hope, and acceptance at all stages of life. Thank you to our event chairs, Anna and Michael Boni and Rhona and Louis Fromm, and the entire committee for making the evening a success, with over 450 people in attendance and raising over $500,000 to help JFCS clients in need.
Almost 100 area Holocaust Survivors, and their guests, attended JFCS’ Café Europa, an annual event in recognition of the Day of Liberation. The celebration included lunch, dancing, and mingling with friends. The group also enjoyed a performance by the Pre-K class of Keneseth Israel.

Fran and Elliot Kane Memorial Lecture

The Fran and Elliot Kane Memorial Lecture, lovingly and generously funded by Natalie Packel Markowitz, is held every year in memory of Fran Kane z”l, and Dr. Elliot Kane z”l. This year’s sold-out lecture, “I Am Adam Lanza’s Mother: The Unspoken Struggle of Mental Illness and the Impact on Family and Community” featured acclaimed educator, advocate, and author Liza Long, along with a diverse panel. JFCS honored two employees at the lecture. Jessica Foltz received the Fran Kane Award for her compassion and commitment to her work with individuals living with disabilities. Dvora Entin received the Elliot Kane award for her innovative work within the Orthodox Jewish community.
Since the grand opening of The Barbara and Harvey Brodsky Enrichment Center in April 2017, JFCS has welcomed our clients, community members, volunteers, and partnering organizations into this 18,000-square-foot therapeutic space. The agency’s goal to create and support communities is the driving purpose of our new site.

In the short time The Brodsky Enrichment Center has been operating, we have held ongoing programs and provided services in the center’s various spaces: therapeutic teaching kitchen, art therapy studio, community room, children’s den, financial empowerment center, senior oasis, and counseling suite. The participants have also varied: people living with disabilities, Ma’oz/maternal mental health ambassadors, Holocaust Survivors, older adults, members of the Circle of Hands giving circle, pregnant and parenting teens, adoptive families, members of the Board of Directors and their peers, caregivers, foster children, allied professionals, LGBTQ activists, chaplains, and more.

We wish to thank all the generous donors who helped to make our dream of creating a warm and welcoming home for our community a reality, particularly our lead donor, Barbara Brodsky. Through their collective support, nearly $8,000,000 was raised. We continue to raise funds for the programming taking place in the center, and are extremely grateful to the growing list of donors to our new site.
JFCS collected family recipes from our Holocaust Survivors, and each month the Survivors’ Group recreate tasty memories.

In collaboration with the Philadelphia Youth Network, JFCS provided students, aged 14–18, with social service agency work experience addressing food and clothing insufficiency in the community.

Circle of Hands offered hands-on day-of-service projects for volunteers.

JFCS’ Ma’oz Bloom Program, supporting newly delivered moms in the Orthodox Community, enjoyed a magical morning with Musically Attuned.

An evening honored artist Debra Kapnek and featured Holocaust Survivors in the powerful portraits in Debra’s work, “Chai.”

Ty Pennington, host of the popular ABC-TV “Extreme Makeover,” worked on the “Paint-by-Numbers” mural with local children.

The lecture “I Am Adam Lanza’s Mother: The Unspoken Struggle of Mental Illness and the Impact on Family and Community” featured author Liza Long and a diverse panel of experts.

Financial Date Night offered couples a chance to identify their financial goals and values, and learn effective communication around financial matters for realizing their financial plans.

Adults with disabilities prepared self-portraits in a therapeutic art workshop and discussed what colors represent them, the impact of color, and what makes them proud.

Jewish Family and Children’s Service of Greater Philadelphia (JFCS) relies on our generous supporters, our pillars of strength, to help us ensure that a child has a safe home, a family has food on the table, a Holocaust Survivor is able to live independently, and so much more.

Our donors’ generosity helps to make possible every aspect of our important work, and the support is an investment in our future.

We are honored to recognize in the categories below those who have made gifts of $250 and more from September 1, 2016, to August 31, 2017.

Every gift to our agency is meaningful, and we extend our most sincere appreciation to our donors.
