JFCS Ma’oz and Amudim invite you to a community event

STRAIGHT TALK: Drugs and Alcohol Addiction in the Jewish Community

An Evening of Awareness, Education, and Collaboration

Brain Space: Understanding the Science of Addiction
Christopher O’Reilly is the Executive Director of Adolescent Services & Breakthrough at Caron Treatment Centers and leads the inpatient adolescent treatment programs and Breakthrough. Chris is an adjunct professor in the undergraduate Behavioral Health program at Alvernia University.

Addiction: It’s a Jewish Problem Too
Rabbi Zvi Gluck is the Director of Amudim Community Resources, a New York based organization that is dedicated to serving community members in times of crisis and fosters change and growth by raising awareness and implementing educational programs within the Jewish community.

What I Would Have Done Differently
By: A Parent of a Child with Addiction

What I Wish You Would Have Known
By: An Adult Addict in Recovery

When: Monday, December 11, 2017, 7:00 pm

Where: The Barbara and Harvey Brodsky Enrichment Center of JFCS
345 Montgomery Ave, Bala Cynwyd PA

Cost: No Fee

RSVP: dentin@jfcsphilly.org

Steering Committee In Formation:
Ariella Chasky, Debbi Frankel, Jen Willner, Amy Eribaum, Francine Melul, Ettie Wachs, Jodi Goldman, Kim Decker, Julia Strassman